

KLove is very important because it offers "clean" music and messages for families. It is not foul, offensive language or content. If KLove should be pulled from FM translators, this will cause a great disservice to the public. I think more time and opinion from listeners should be given, before deciding that there is little value in national or regional services provided by KLove.

Thank you.